Such sum shall be deemed to be in default and such employer shall be deemed to be a defaulter unless such employer on or before such date either pays such sum or pays the sum which he ought to have paid in respect of such instalment of contribution and furnishes the statement referred to in section 7.

10. (1) The contribution payable under this Act by a person in respect of income derived from sources other than employment during the relevant period shall be paid to the Commissioner in four quarterly instalments on or before April 15, 1971, July 15, 1971, October 15, 1971 and January 15, 1972, respectively and each such instalment shall be in respect of each successive period of three months in the relevant period. The amount so assessed shall be deemed to be the amount of the contribution payable by him in respect of the relevant period.

(2) An assessment made under sub-section (1) in respect of any instalment of the contribution payable by any person shall not affect the liability of such person to a penalty under section 12 as though the amount assessed were the amount of the instalment of contribution due from that person.

(1) Where it appears to an Assessor that a person required to contribute to the Fund under this Act has paid as an instalment of such contribution or as such contribution an amount less than the proper amount payable by him as such instalment of contribution or contributions, the Assessor may, at any time, assess such person at the additional amount at which the instalment of the contribution or the contribution ought to have been paid by such person.

16. (1) Any person may, if he is dissatisfied with any assessment or additional assessment made in respect of him by an Assessor, appeal against such assessment, or additional assessment to the Commissioner within thirty days after the service of notice of such assessment, or additional assessment. Such person shall, notwithstanding the appeal, pay the amount he is required to pay by reason of such assessment or additional assessment.

- (d) the provisions of section 111A of the principal Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply as if such provisions were provisions of this Act and refer to the contribution payable under this Act instead of to income tax and as if the reference to an appeal under Chapter XII of the principal Act were a reference to an appeal under this Act;
- (e) the provisions of section 112 and of section 113 of the principal Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply as if such provisions were provisions of this Act and refer to the contribution payable under this Act instead of to income tax;

(Date of Assent: August 26, 1971)

1. This Act may be cited as the Holidays Act, No. 29 of 1971, and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may appoint by Order published in the Gazette

PART 1*PUBLIC AND BANK HOLIDAYS

2. It is hereby declared that every Full Moon Poya Day and every Sunday—

- (a) shall be a public holiday; and
- (b) shall be a bank holiday.

3. Subject to the provisions of section 4—

- (a) the several days specified in the First Schedule hereto shall, in addition to the Full Moon Poya Days and Sundays, be public holidays; and
- (b) the several days specified in the Second Schedule hereto shall, in addition to the Full Moon Poya Days and Sundays, be bank holidays.

4. The Minister may by Order published in the Gazette from time to time amend or vary the First Schedule or the Second Schedule to this Act or may from time to time replace any such Schedule by a new Schedule.

5. (1) Every public holiday—

- (a) shall be a dies non; and
  - (b) shall be kept as a holiday.
- (2) Every bank holiday shall be kept as a close holiday in every bank.

6. (1) No person shall be compellable to make any payment or to do any act upon a bank holiday which he would not be compelled to make or to do on a Full Moon Poya Day or a Sunday; and accordingly, the obligation to make such payment or to do such act shall apply to the date next following such bank holiday which is not itself a Full Moon Poya Day or a Sunday or a bank holiday; and the making of such payment or the doing of such act on such following day shall be deemed, for all purposes, to be the equivalent to the making of such payment or the doing of such act on such bank holiday.

(2) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall affect the law for the time being in force relating to bills of exchange or promissory notes, nor shall anything in such provisions apply to any payment or act to be made or done in a court or public office on a bank holiday which is not a public holiday.

7. For the purpose of avoiding the causing of inconvenience to the public or of the disruption of services essential to the life of the community, the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister charged with the administration, of the functions of any public office or any Government department, may, from time to time, by Order published in the Gazette declare that, for the purposes of or in relation to that office or department or any holder of that office or any member of that department, the Full Moon Poya Day or the Sunday shall not be a public holiday, and that in addition, only such of the days for the time being specified in the First Schedule to this Act as are also specified in that Order shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, be public holidays.

8 The Minister may from time to time by Order published in the Gazette, declare that, as respects any such year as shall be specified in that Order, each such day in each such month in that year as may be so specified shall be a Full Moon Poya Day for the purposes of this Act.

9. (1) (a) Where, for the purpose of enabling, the benefits and advantages of the new scheme of holidays embodied in the principles and provisions of this Act to be enjoyed by or extended to employees of any particular class or description, certain adjustments or changes in the terms or conditions of their employment are necessary but such adjustments or changes cannot be made or effected without amending or modifying the provisions of any written law (other than this Act) by or under which such terms or conditions are governed, than, the Minister may make regulations under this Act amending or modifying any such written law to such extent or in such manner as may be necessary for that purpose and, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by the preceding provisions of this paragraph, so amending or modifying the Wages Boards Ordinance, the Shop and Office Employees (Regulation of Employment and Remuneration) Act, and the Factories Ordinance. In deciding upon the adjustments or changes to be so made or effected due regard shall be had both to the existing rights and obligations of employers and employees and to the desirability of ensuring that such adjustments or changes have as far as practicable no adverse impact on the general pattern of economic activity in Ceylon and on Ceylon's trade with other countries.

(b) In paragraph (a) of this sub-section, the expression "terms or conditions of employment" includes such matters as hours of work, remuneration, payment of overtime, holidays and hours or days of rest.

(c) No regulation shall be made by the Minister under this Act in respect of any matter referred to in the preceding provisions of this sub-section except with the prior concurrence of the Minister to whom the subject or function of Labour is assigned by the Prime Minister.

(2) (a) The Minister may make regulations under this Act for such purpose or purposes as may be necessary to give full force and effect to the principles and provisions of this Act.

(b) In particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by the preceding provisions of this sub-section, the Minister may make regulations for or in respect of all or any of the following matters:—

- (i) all matters connected with the application and enforcement of this Act in respect of which the provisions of this Act require to be modified or supplemented to meet special contingencies or circumstances;
- (ii) the determination or adjustment of any question or matter relating to public holidays and bank holidays or matters connected therewith or incidental thereto for the determination or adjustment of which no provision or effective provision is made by this Act;
- (iii) the removal or adjustment of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Act and any other written law (other than any written law referred to in subsection (1));
- (iv) all other matters connected with or incidental to the matters aforesaid.

(c) Regulations made under the preceding provisions of this sub-section may provide for all such amendments, modifications or variations in this Act or any other written law (not being any written law referred to in sub-section (1)) as may be necessary to achieve the object of such regulations.

(3) Any regulation made under this Act may be of general application, or may be limited in its application to any specified purpose or purposes.

(4) No regulation made by the Minister under this Act shall have effect until it has been approved by the Senate and the House of Representatives, nor until notification of such approval has been published in the Gazette.

(5) Every regulation made by the Minister under this Act shall, upon the publication in the Gazette of a notification of the approval of that regulation as provided in sub-section (4), be deemed to be as valid and effectual as though it were herein enacted.

10. (1) The Minister may, without amending or varying the First Schedule to this Act, from time to time, by Order published in the Gazette, declare that-

- (b) any such day in any such month in any such year as may be specified in that Order shall be a bank holiday for the purposes of this Act, in lieu of any day for the time being specified in that Schedule.

(2) Any Order made by the Minister under sub-section (1) declaring any day to be a bank holiday for the purposes of this Act shall come into force upon the date of its publication in the Gazette, or upon such later date as may be specified therein, and shall cease to be in force on the day immediately succeeding that day.

12. The Holidays Act, No. 17 of 1965, is hereby repealed:

Provided, however, that, notwithstanding the repeal of the aforesaid Act, all regulations made under that Act shall be deemed to continue in force and may be amended or rescinded by regulations made under this Part of this Act.

(2) The seal of the Bank may be altered in such manner as may be determined by the Bank.

(3) The seal of the Bank shall not be affixed to any instrument or document except in the presence of two members of the Board both of whom shall sign the instrument or document in token of their presence.

4. (1) The Bank shall have its principal place of business in Colombo and may have such branches, agencies and agents as may be necessary for the transaction of the business of the Bank.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1) the Bank may appoint as an agency or agent, subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, any person, commercial bank or body corporate.

5. (1) There shall be an Authority who shall be known as the Official Authority of the Bank for the purpose of assisting the Bank in the exercise, discharge and performance of its powers, functions and duties under this Act or any other written law, in this Act referred to as the "Official Authority".

(2) The Postmaster-General-

- (a) shall be the Official Authority; and
- (b) shall, in his capacity as that Authority and as that Authority only and by the name assigned to him in that capacity under this Act, be a corporation sole with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in his corporate name and shall, subject to the approval of the Board, be capable of acquiring, holding or alienating property, movable or immovable, and may appoint branch offices for the transaction of the business of the Bank.

(3) The Official Authority shall, as agent of the Bank, exercise, discharge or perform such powers, functions or duties of the Bank as are assigned or delegated to it by order, from time to time, made by the Board, and in the exercise, discharge or performance of such powers, functions or duties the Official Authority shall give effect to any directions which may, from time to time, be issued by the Board.

(4) The Board may, from time to time, by order assign or delegate to the Official Authority any of the powers, functions or duties conferred or imposed on the Bank under this Act or any other written law.

(5) Where the effect of any order of the Board under sub-section (4) is that any act or thing which may previously have been directly done by the Bank may be done by the Official Authority, or that any act or thing which may previously have been done by that Authority may be done directly by the Bank, the order may include such transitional provisions as to the parties by and against whom legal proceedings are to be instituted or continued, and such transitional powers, if any, as may appear to the Board to be expedient.

(3) An appointed director shall hold office for three years unless he earlier resigns or is removed from office.

(10) Where, upon the death of any person who has a deposit or savings account, other than a nominator, there is a sum of money to the credit of such person in the Bank, any officer or person who is duly authorized to make payments in respect of accounts may, if satisfied that such first-mentioned person died intestate and that letters of administration to the estate of such person are not required by any written law, pay such sums of money, subject to the provisions of this Act, to the person or persons to whom such sum is required, in accordance with any rule in that behalf, to be paid:

Provided that until rules are made in that behalf, any such sum may be paid to the person or persons legally entitled to the payment thereof.

together, if the arbitrators are unable to resolve the dispute, with a third arbitrator agreed upon by such arbitrators, and the award, order or determination made by the majority of the arbitrators shall be final and conclusive and binding on the Bank and the other party to the dispute.

46. Where a person who has a deposit or savings account in the Bank is alleged to be of unsound mind or otherwise incapable of managing his affairs, and the Bank is satisfied as to his incapacity and as to the urgency of his need, the Bank may with the approval of the Minister pay the money lying to his credit to such other person as the Bank thinks proper, and a receipt signed by such other person shall be a sufficient discharge for any payment made to him.

47. (1) Where an account has lain dormant, that is to say, the pass book has not been presented for examination and insertion of interest or there has been no withdrawal from or deposit into his account, for a period of seven years by a person who commenced his account on or after reaching the age of sixteen years, or for a period of seven years after reaching the age of sixteen years by a person who commenced his account before the age of sixteen years, the moneys lying to the credit of such person shall—

(2) Before any moneys, which aggregate to ten rupees or more, lying in an account are transferred in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1), the Bank shall, not less than three months prior to the date of such transfer, publish a notice in the Sinhala, Tamil and English languages in the Gazette and in three daily newspapers in each of the three languages respectively stating the name of the person in whose favour the account stands, the fact that the account has been dormant for a period of seven years, and that it is intended, on a specified date, to transfer the moneys lying in that account to the Unclaimed Deposits Fund under the provisions of sub-section (1).

(3) Any moneys transferred to the Unclaimed Deposits Fund may be retransferred to the account in which it was originally lying, at the instance of any person who furnishes proof to the satisfaction of the Board that the account was in his name or in the name of a person from whom he derives title.

(4) Any moneys which are transferred to the Unclaimed Deposits Fund and which have not been retransferred to the original account within a period of three years shall, on the expiry of that period, be transferred to a special reserve.

(5) Any moneys transferred to a special reserve under this section shall in no circumstances be retransferred to the account in which they were originally lying.

48. (1) Every person-

(2) Any notice which is required to be served on any person to whom sub-section (1) applies shall be deemed to have been duly served on that person if it is sent by post in a registered letter directed to that person at the address registered by him under that sub-section, and the service shall be deemed to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post:

Provided that, where any such person fails to register his address under sub-section (1), the Bank shall publish in the Gazette and in a daily newspaper, a notice addressed to him, and such notice shall be deemed to be duly given to him on the day on which such notice was published.

51. Where a loan is granted by Bank on the mortgage of any immovable property, that property shall from and after the date of the registration of such mortgage be charged with the payment of the loan with interest in priority to every other debt, mortgage or charge affecting it, except a debt which is secured by a mortgage duly registered prior to such date and which is due to a creditor who in good faith advanced the money before the loan was granted by the Bank.

52. (1) Whenever default is made in the payment of any sum due on a loan, whether on account of principal or of interest or of both, default shall be deemed to have been made in respect of the whole of the unpaid portion of the loan and the interest due thereon up to date; and the Bank may, by resolution of the Board published in the Gazette, authorize any person in writing to sell the property mortgaged as security for such payment by public auction at any time not less than twenty one days after the date on which such resolution was published, in order to recover the whole of the unpaid portion of the loan and the interest due thereon up to the date of sale and the moneys and costs recoverable under section 53.

(2) (a) Save as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), the provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply in the case of any default notwithstanding that the borrower may have died or that any right, title or interest whatsoever in the property mortgaged to the Bank as security for the loan may have passed by voluntary conveyance or by operation of law to any other person.

(b) Where a borrower is dead and probate of his will or letters or administration to his estate have not been issued to any person, the District Court of Colombo or the District Court of the district in which the property mortgaged to the Bank by that borrower is situate, may, upon application made in that behalf by the Bank and after service of notice of the application on such persons, if any, as the court may order, and if satisfied that the grant of probate or the issue of letters of administration is likely to be unduly delayed, appoint a person to represent the estate of the borrower for the purposes of this section; and the provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply in the case of any default made by such borrower unless and until a person is appointed under this paragraph to represent the estate of such borrower.

(3) (a) Notice of every resolution under sub-section (1) authorizing the sale of any property shall be published, in addition to the Gazette, in three daily newspapers in Sinhala, Tamil and English respectively, and copies of such notice shall be despatched to the borrower, if he is alive, and to every person who has, in respect of that property, registered his address under the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 48, and, if that property consists of the interest of a lessee under a lease from the Crown, to the Land Commissioner.

(b) Notice of the date, time and place of every sale shall, not less than fourteen days before the date fixed for the sale, be published in the Gazette and copies of such notice shall be-

(i) despatched to the borrower if he is alive, and to every other person to whom notice of any resolution is required to be despatched under paragraph (a);

- (ii) posted on or near the property which is to be sold; and
- (iii) affixed to the walls of the Kachcheri and the several District Courts and Magistrates' Courts within the jurisdiction of which the property is situate.

(4) (a) If the amount of the whole of the unpaid portion of the loan together with interest, including any penal interest due thereon and of the moneys and costs, if any, recoverable by the Bank under section 53, is tendered to the Bank at any time before the date fixed for the sale, the property shall not be sold, and no further steps shall be taken in pursuance of the resolution under sub-section (1) for the sale of that property.

(b) If the amount of the instalment or equated payment in respect of which default has been made, together with any penal interest due thereon, and of the moneys and costs, if any, recoverable by the Bank under section 53, is tendered to the Bank at any time before the date fixed for the sale, the Board may, in its discretion, direct that the property shall not be sold, and that no further steps shall be taken in pursuance of the resolution under sub-section (1) for the sale of that property.

(5) The Board may fix an upset price below which the property shall not be sold to any person other than the Bank. In fixing such price the Bank shall have particular regard both to the outstanding amount of the loan granted on the security of such property and the current value of such property.

(6) In any case where two or more loans have been granted by the Bank on the security of the same property and default is made in the payment of any sum due upon one or more of such loans, the provisions of this section shall apply notwithstanding that default may not have been made in respect of the other loan or of any of the other loans, and the Bank may, in any such case, by resolution of the Board under sub-section (1) authorize the sale of the property for the recovery of the total amount due to the Bank in respect of both or all the loans, as the case may be, and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

53. Besides the amount due on the loan, the Bank may recover from the debtor or any person acting on his behalf-

(a) all moneys expended by the Bank, in accordance with the covenants contained in the mortgage bond executed by the debtor, in the payment of premiums and other charges in respect of the policy of insurance effected on the property mortgaged to the Bank and in the payment of all other costs and charges authorized to be incurred by the Bank, under the covenants contained in the mortgage bond executed by the debtor; and

(b) the costs of advertising the sale and of selling the property:

Provided that the costs incurred under this paragraph shall not exceed such percentage of the loan as may be prescribed; and

(c) in any case where the property mortgaged as security for the loan consists of the interest of the debtor under a lease from the Crown, and such property has been surrendered to the Crown in accordance with the provisions of section 59, all moneys paid to the Crown by the Bank on such surrender as moneys due to the Crown by the debtor under the said lease.

54. If the mortgaged property is sold, the Bank shall, after deducting from the sale proceeds the amount due on the mortgage and the moneys and costs recoverable under section 53, pay the overplus, if any, either to the debtor or any person legally entitled to accept the payments due to the debtor, or into the District Court having jurisdiction over the property sold in case the Bank is in doubt as to whom the money is to be paid.

55. (1) If the mortgaged property is sold the Bank shall sign a certificate of sale and thereupon all the right, title, and interest of the debtor to and in the property shall vest in the purchaser, nor shall any person claiming through or under any disposition whatsoever of the debtor's right, title, or interest to and in the property made or registered subsequently to the mortgage of the property to the Bank be able in any court of law to move to invalidate the sale for any cause whatsoever or to maintain any right, title or interest to or in the property as against the purchaser.

(2) A certificate signed by the Bank under subsection (1) shall be conclusive proof with respect to the sale of any property that all the provisions of this Act have been complied with.

(3) The certificate referred to in sub-section (1) shall be substantially in such form as may be prescribed. Different forms may be so prescribed accordingly as the purchaser is, or is not, the Bank.

(4) Every certificate of sale shall be liable to the stamp duty and charges fixed for conveyance of immovable property, and to any registration or other charges authorized by law, all of which shall be payable by the purchaser.

(5) Where the property sold consists of the interest of a lessee under a lease from the Crown, then, if the purchaser of the property is some person other than the Bank, the certificate of sale shall not be signed by the Bank unless the Land Commissioner, in the exercise of his discretion, has approved the purchaser.

(6) Whenever the Land Commissioner refuses, under sub-section (5), to approve any purchaser of the interest of a lessee under a lease from the Crown—

- (a) all sums paid to the Bank by the purchaser in respect of the sale shall be repaid to him by the Bank;
- (b) the costs of advertising and holding such sale shall be deemed to be costs recoverable by the Bank under section 53 (b); and
- (c) the property shall be resold in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

56. (1) The purchaser of any property sold in pursuance of the provisions of section 52 shall, upon application being made to the District Court of Colombo or the District Court having jurisdiction over the place where the property is situate, and upon production of the certificate of sale issued in respect of the property under section 55, be entitled to obtain an order for delivery of possession of the property.

(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall be made, and shall be disposed of, by way of summary procedure in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XXIV of the Civil Procedure Code; and on all documents filed for the purposes of each such application and on all proceedings held thereupon, stamp duties and other charges shall be payable at the respective rates payable under any written law for the time being in force, on applications for, and proceedings connected with or incidental to, the execution of a decree of a District Court for the delivery of possession of a property of the same value as the property to which such application relates.

(3) Where the property sold in pursuance of the provisions of section 52 is in the occupancy of the debtor or of some person on his behalf or of some person claiming under a title created by the debtor subsequently to the mortgage of the property to the Bank, the District Court shall order delivery to be made by putting the purchaser, or any person whom he may appoint to receive possession on his behalf, in possession of the property.

(4) Where the property sold in pursuance of the provisions of section 52 is in the occupancy of a tenant or other person entitled to occupy the same, the District Court shall order delivery to be made by affixing a notice that the sale has taken place, in the Sinhala, Tamil and English languages, in some conspicuous place on the property, and proclaiming to the occupant by beat of tom-tom, or in such other mode as may be customary, at some convenient place, that the interest of the debtor has been transferred to the purchaser. The cost of such proclamation shall be fixed by the court and shall in every case be prepaid by the purchaser.

(5) Every order under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) shall be deemed, as the case may be, to be an order for delivery of possession made under section 287 or section 288 of the Civil Procedure Code, and may be enforced in like manner as an order so made, the debtor and the purchaser being deemed, for the purpose of the application of any provision of that Code, to be the judgment-debtor and judgment-creditor, respectively.

57. If the property sold has been purchased on behalf of the Bank the Board may, at any time before it resells the property, cancel the sale by an endorsement to that effect on a certified copy of the certificate of sale, if the debtor or anyone else on his behalf pays the amount due in respect of the loan for which the property was sold (including the costs of seizure and sale) and interest on the aggregate sum at a rate not exceeding a prescribed rate. Such an endorsement shall, upon registration in the office of the Registrar of Lands, revest the said property in the proprietor as though the sale under this Act had never been made.

58. If the property so sold has been purchased on behalf of the Bank, and the sale is not cancelled under section 57, the Board may, at any time, resell the property and transfer to the purchaser by endorsement on a certified copy of the certificate referred to in sub-section (3) of section 55, all the right, title, and interest which would have been acquired by a purchaser at the original sale. The endorsement which shall be liable to the same stamp duty and charges as a certificate to a purchaser at the original sale, shall when it is registered in the office of the Registrar of Lands vest such right, title, and interest as aforesaid in the purchaser.

59. If at any sale under section 52 the Bank has purchased any property sold for default in the repayment of a loan the Bank shall not hold such property for a longer period than is necessary to enable the Board to resell the property for such a sum as will cover the total amount due to the Bank on account of loan, interest, expenses and costs:

Provided that where such property consists of the interest of a lessee under a lease from the Crown, the Board may, instead of reselling such property, pay all sums of money due to the Crown by the lessee under the lease and surrender the lease to the Crown on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Board, the Minister and the Minister charged with the subject of Crown lands.

60. For the purpose of deciding whether any immovable property tendered as security for a loan should or should not be accepted, the Bank shall have access without fee or charge to the valuation roll of any local rating or taxing authority, and the officers of every such authority shall upon application supply to the Bank full particulars as to any valuation of property in respect of which such authority is empowered under the provisions of any law to levy any rate or tax.

61. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, "property", in any case where a loan is secured by a mortgage of the interest of a lessee under a lease from the Crown, means the right, title and interest of the lessee under the lease.

62. Nothing in sections 52 to 61 shall be deemed to preclude the Bank from recovering the amount due on any mortgage bond in accordance with the provisions of any other written law.
